

St. Paul Lutheran Church

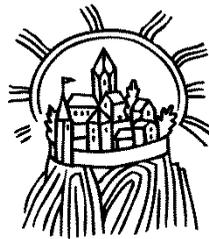

9:30a Service of Worship

Pastor ~ Reverend Ashley Nicolls

Fifth Sunday after Epiphany | February 5, 2023

Welcome!

May God's grace continue to overflow to and through you.

Welcome to St. Paul Lutheran Church.

We hope you will use this bulletin during the week to have a song to sing, prayers to pray and give comfort, whether you are worshipping in person or from home on your electronic devices.

Please know that although not all of us are physically together to worship, our Lord is still with us. We give thanks for those who do attend in-person, but also the technology that allows us to share the bulletin, record the service of worship and post to our website.

Our Tuesday Community Meal and Saturday Food Pantry are important outreaches into the community. Please continue to support these ministries as you are able.

Remember the Community Prayer Cross outside near the road. You are welcome to leave a prayer request there or in the box in the narthex and it will be brought out to the cross.

Your offerings are appreciated for our ministries. They can be made via online giving, given on Sunday morning, mailed to the church or dropped off during our normal office hours

Monday-Friday • 9a-12noon.

May God bless you and give you peace.

Fifty Nifty United States,
From thirteen original colonies,
Fifty Nifty stars in the flag,
That billows so beautifully in the breeze.

Each individual state
Contributes a quality that is great.
Each individual state, deserves a bow,
We salute them now.

Fifty Nifty United States,
From thirteen original colonies,
Shout 'em, scout 'em, tell all about 'em.
One by one till we've given a day
To every state, in the U.S.A.

Confession

Pastor: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, who makes all things new, whose mercy endures forever.

Response: Amen.

Pastor: Trusting in God’s mercy, let us confess our sin.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Pastor: Holy One, source of our renewal,

Response: we confess that we are wrapped up in sin, and cannot free ourselves. We have not practiced your righteousness. Our hearts have turned away from you. For the sake of the world you so love, forgive us, that we may be reconciled to one another for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Forgiveness

Pastor: Thus says our God: “The former things have come to pass and new things I now declare.” God’s mercy makes us new. We are forgiven in the name of † Christ our Savior. Response: Amen.

Scripture ~ Isaiah 58:1-12

Shortly after the return of Israel from exile in Babylon, the people were troubled by the ineffectiveness of their fasts. God reminds them that outward observance is no substitute for genuine fasting that results in acts of justice, such as feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, and clothing the naked.

¹Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. ²Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. ³“Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?” Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. ⁴Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. ⁵Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? ⁶Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?⁷Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? ⁸Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. ^{9a}Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. ^{9b}If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, ¹⁰if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. ¹¹The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. ¹²Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in. Word of God. Word of Life. Response: Thanks be to God.

Scripture ~ Psalm 112:1-10

¹Hallelujah! Happy are they who fear the Lord and have great delight in God’s commandments!

²Their descendants will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches will be in their house, and their righteousness will last forever.

⁴Light shines in the darkness for the upright; the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.

⁵It is good for them to be generous in lending and to manage their affairs with justice.

⁶For they will never be shaken; the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.

⁷They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; their heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.

⁸Their heart is established and will not shrink, until they see their desire upon their enemies.

⁹They have given freely to the poor, and their righteousness stands fast forever; they will hold up their head with honor.

¹⁰The wicked will see it and be angry; they will gnash their teeth and pine away; the desires of the wicked will perish.

Gospel ~ Matthew 5:13-20

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus encourages his followers to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, doing good works and keeping God's commandments.

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 5th chapter.

Response: Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said:] ¹³"You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. ¹⁴"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. ¹⁵No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. ¹⁷"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. ¹⁸For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Pastor: The Gospel of the Lord. Response: Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayers of the Church

Assisting Minister: Called together to follow Jesus, we pray for the church, the world, and all in need.

A brief silence.

Assisting Minister: Call your people to seek your wisdom in difficult conversations and action.

Response: Give the church everywhere courage to repent for the ways we have tolerated and practiced injustice.

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: Inspire our wonder at creation, from the light of dawn to the beauty of the dark night.

Response: Sustain the unseen depths of the ocean to the plants and animals we know well. Bring healing to lands and communities experiencing natural disasters

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: Instruct the powerful in your ways.

Response: Provide upright leadership in business and industry, that workers are not oppressed. Throughout the world, inspire voters and raise up politicians to heed your call for nations to practice righteousness.

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: Loosen the bonds of injustice in our midst.

Response: Shelter all who flee abuse in their homes or violence in their communities. Satisfy those afflicted in any way.

Assisting Minister: Be especially with those we name now aloud or in our hearts.
(pause)

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: Shape our congregation to be salt for the earth.

Response: Give us delight in your commandments, that we are generous with those in need. Make us steadfast in our trust in you, ready with tangible mercy and compassion for our neighbors.

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: The cross and resurrection bring redemption from sin and death.

Response: We praise you for all whose unshaken faith in Christ shines forth in their witness. Keep them in our remembrance and bring us with them into the kingdom of heaven.

Assisting Minister: Merciful God, Response: receive our prayer.

Assisting Minister: We bring to you our needs and hopes, O God, trusting your wisdom and power revealed in Christ crucified. Response: Amen.

The Peace

Pastor: The peace of Christ be with you always. Response: And also with you.

Offering

(The collection plates will be brought forward at this time.

Offering plates can still be found at the back of the sanctuary if you did not place your offering in the plates when you came in.

Online giving at www.stpaulsarasota.org is also available.)

Offering Prayer

Assisting Minister: Liberating God, you break the bonds of injustice and let the oppressed go free. Receive these offerings in thanksgiving for all your works of merciful power, and shape us as people of your justice and freedom. You we magnify and adore, through Jesus our Savior,

Response: Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

Pastor: My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Holy Communion

(Please lift up you communion elements at this time for blessing and consecration).

Pastor: In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me. Together as the body of Christ, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes:

Response: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Lord's Prayer

Pastor: Lord, remember us in your love and teach us to pray.

Response: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Pastor: Come and taste the joy of God! Response: Thanks be to God.

Pastor: The body and blood of Christ is given and shed for you. Take and eat. Take and drink.

Post Communion Blessing

Pastor: Now may the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you and keep you in his grace now and forever.

Response: Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Assisting Minister: Holy One, we thank you for the healing that springs forth abundantly from this table. Renew our strength to do justice, love kindness, and journey humbly with you.

Response: Amen.

Blessing

Pastor: The God who faithfully brings forth justice and breaks the oppressor's rod ✠ bless, strengthen, and uphold you, today and always.

Response: Amen.

Attendance for last Sunday: 79 in-person; 68 views (as of 01/24/23)

Bulletins are given by Jill and John Scherer in honor of Jill's Father, Grayston Witmer.

St. Paul Mission Statement

As a Holy Spirit-led family of God, we are called through baptism to proclaim and bear witness to God's reconciling grace in Jesus Christ to all so that by joyfully sharing God's Word and encouraging each other to service for the sake of others, our lives together make a difference for Christ and His kingdom.

We Come from Everywhere!

The Worship and Music Ministry of St. Paul is planning to celebrate you in 2023. Starting on January 15, 2023, and for the next four Sundays, you and your state will be honored at a worship service. Weather permitting, we plan that the February 5 service will be held outside.

On your Sunday, we will publish in the bulletin, "Did You Know?" which will include a fact about your state, and you will be recognized during worship.

We are suggesting when it is your state's week, please fill out your name and state on a nametag. A member from Worship and Music will represent one of the states and be a roving greeter to welcome you.

After service, we will gather in Fellowship Hall and invite you to bring a snack to share that represents your state. We look forward to hearing a tidbit about "Where are you from?" during the Fellowship time. Snacks may be dropped off in Fellowship Hall prior to the service.
